

MANY CHANGES IN PASTORATES

Appointments Made by the Methodist Conference at Ripon.

GOOD MEN HERE

Stevens Goes to Kenosha, Hall to Stevens Point, Woods to Oshkosh.

M'CHESNEY MADE P. E.

The appointments of pastors for the Methodist Episcopal churches in the Wisconsin conference were announced this morning at the conference session at Ripon by Bishop Joyce. Several changes were made at the last moment evidently, and the result was that even those who were nearest the fountain head of authority and were quite positive that they could forecast the various appointments quite accurately, received several surprises.

For instance Rev. W. W. Stevens, who it seemed definitely settled, would go to Fort Atkinson to take charge of the church there, has been sent to the Kenosha church, one of the best appointments in the state and Rev. John Reynolds has been sent to Fort Atkinson. Rev. E. S. M'Chesney will succeed Rev. Stevens as presiding elder of the Janesville district.

Changes in This City. The city loses all three of its ministers and all three of them will find their new field of labor, outside of the Janesville district.

The prediction made concerning Rev. W. W. Woods proved a true prophecy and he was appointed presiding elder of the Oshkosh district. Rev. W. A. Hall will go to Stevens Point. Rev. John J. Lugg, in whom Janesville people are especially interested because he grew to manhood here, will serve for the coming year at Park Place, Milwaukee.

Rev. James Tippett comes to Court street M. E. church and Rev. M. E. Churm to the First M. E. church. Both are able men and Rev. Stevens is well pleased with the appointments for this city. Janesville people will regret deeply the departure of the three pastors, who have identified themselves so closely with the city's best interests. The removal of their families will also be felt in the church work and by the many friends which they have made during the years they have resided here. Notwithstanding this regret, however, the hand of welcome will be extended cordially to the new comers.

The following are the appointments for the churches in the Janesville district:

Janesville District.
Presiding Elder—E. S. M'Chesney.
Court Street M. E. Church—J. H. Tippett.
First M. E. Church—James Churm.

Whitewater—George Traver.
Wilton and Lenoir—D. W. North.
Clinton—George Taylor.
Alton—George R. H. Jones.
Forest Grove—John Reynolds.
Palmyra and Little Prairie—Samuel Lugg.
Elkhorn and Bethel—S. H. Sheard.
Lake Geneva—S. B. Young.
East Troy—J. M. Woodward.
Fort Prairie—H. C. Logan.
Jefferson—Fred S. Wheeler.
Lake Mills—W. W. Warner.
London and Milford—Suppl.
Lyons Circuit—E. J. Symons.
Milton Junction and Koshkonong—E. M. Starkweather.
Orford and Plymouth—L. P. Bear.
Palmyra Circuit—J. B. North.
Richmond and Fellers Corners—J. M. Judy.
Shopshire—E. J. Bulley.
Watertown—J. M. Bulley.

The Milwaukee list is as follows: Kinsey, O. A. Lucco; Epworth, Ed. Kautz; Ansbury, W. D. Cox; Grand Avenue C. P. Masdon; Park Place, J. J. Lugg; Sherman Street, A. G. Gilbert; Simpson and Layton Park, R. S. Jagarham; Summerfield, R. K. Manston; Trinity, Perry Miller; Washington Avenue, Enoch Ferry.

MR. BENJAMIN'S APOLOGY

Amicable Adjustment of the Differences at Ripon Conference. Ripon, Wis., Oct. 15.—Bishop Joyce and the presiding elders worked hard all night on the appointments, and it was not far from sunrise when the work was finished.

At the session last evening, when the question as to the place for the next meeting came up, there was no invitation for the first time in the history of the conference, and the presiding elder will make a choice.

MR. BENJAMIN'S APOLOGY

The amicable adjustment of the differences between the Rev. J. D. Woods and Presiding Elder Benjamin was carried out without a hitch. The committee presented their first report that Mr. Woods requested to look at the question as to his character. As soon as this was passed J. D. Woods rose in his seat and said:

"I ask the Wisconsin annual conference to grant me a certificate of location."

On vote this request was granted. Bishop Joyce then called "Brother Benjamin," and that presiding elder rose in his place and quoted from the psalmist and said: "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up, or rather, I should say it has tired me, and in the intensity of that stirring up I have said and done things to the injury of Brother Woods, and I here and now ask his pardon for the wrong I have done him."

As the words were spoken Mr. Benjamin stepped over to Mr. Woods and grasped his hands and as they stood there hand in hand Mr. Woods made the following statement: "You are freely forgiven and for all that I have said and done to your injury I too, seek pardon, and I here and now declare that all the past is now buried forever." The ministers applauded vigorously.

Sunday Observance

When the committee on the Sabbath observance read their report the Rev. Samuel Lugg startled the brethren by saying that he was not in favor of that part of the report which condemned all Sunday traffic on railroads. He thought it as foolish and impossible to try to stop all Sunday traffic on railroads as to try to compel steamships to drift helplessly for twenty-four hours. "Brethren," he said, "you might as well bark at the moon."

The report of the statistical secretary showed a total membership in the churches of the conference of 22,118, a decrease of forty-four from the figures of last year. The total valuation of the church property was put at $1,416,670. The pastors had been paid $138,985 and the presiding elders $7,821. The total benevolent collections had amounted to $31,016.

REPORT ON TRADE UNIONS' PROBLEMS

Labor Leaders Believe Strikes Are a Necessary Part of Trade Union Procedure.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—A summary of the industrial commission's report on trade and labor organizations was issued today. The report gives a sketch of the trade union movement and a history of the trade unions of this country, with statistics as to membership, finances, and other features of the organizations.

The following table gives a rough estimate of the aggregate membership of the labor organizations of local, national and international unions, is given. The salaries of the national officers have often been discussed. This report shows that they are moderate in proportion to the responsibilities of the officers.

Unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor..... 950,000
Custom-clothing makers..... 3,500
Lithographers..... 2,100
Bricklayers..... 39,000
Plasterers..... 10,000
Boatmen..... 10,000
Plan workers..... 7,500
Engineers, marine..... 4,000
Engineers, locomotive..... 37,000
Firemen, locomotive..... 39,000
Conductors, railway..... 25,500
Trainmen, railroad..... 15,000
Switchmen..... 15,000
Letter carriers..... 15,000
Knights of Labor and unaffiliated organizations, say..... 101,100

Total..... $1,400,000

The establishment of a standard rate of wages is regarded as the primary object of the trade union policy.

"It is a great mistake, however," the report says, "to suppose that the standard rate of the labor organization means a uniform wage for each member by the day or week. The standard rate means a uniform compensation to all members for the same performance."

Considerable space is devoted to the discussion of hours and holidays, and the arguments of labor men for shorter hours, to the exclusiveness of the unions and their attitude toward apprenticeship.

GIRL MESSENGERS IN PLACE OF BOYS

A Bridgeport, Conn., Man Grows Tired of Boys in His Office, and Makes Novel Change.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 15.—Manager Shelly of the Western Union office here is employing girls to take the places of boys doing general messenger work.

Jennie Lyons, aged 16, the first girl messenger employed, was given a bunch of telegrams to deliver and she went to work with such a will and made such good time that the boy messengers were put completely in the background. Two more girls have applied for positions and will be put to work.

Shelly says the reason he has employed the girls is because he cannot get boys. He believes the girls are not given to murdering time as the boys are, and they do not smoke cigarettes, chew tobacco or read novels. Bicycles will be given the girl messengers.

PLUMMER IS IN PURSUIT OF BOTH

Pretoria, Oct. 15.—General Plummer's column arrived at Volksrust to help in the pursuit of Botha. The fact that Plummer has been called into the pursuit indicates that every possible effort will be made by the British to corner the elusive Boer leader.

London, Oct. 15.—It is rumored on the stock exchange that Botha was captured but Kitchener made no mention of it in his weekly statement received this morning.

Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will hold the first of a series of card parties Oct. 15 at Foresters' hall.

BIG QUESTION BEFORE BANKERS WHO MEET IN MILWAUKEE TODAY

They Will Demand the Removal of Federal Tax on Banks—Herrick for Next President—Stock Jobbing To Be Made Harder.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 15.—About 1,000 members of the American Bankers association are gathered here today, and this city has within her gates the custodians of $3,000,000,000 of the peoples' money.

After concluding its business meeting yesterday afternoon the executive council of the American Bankers' association was banqueted at the Milwaukee club last night by the members of the Bankers' club of Milwaukee. The meeting of the afternoon and the banquet of last night were preliminary to the sessions of the convention which opened at ten o'clock this morning in the Tabernacle.

An Address of Welcome

An address of welcome on the part of the state of Wisconsin was delivered by Lieutenant Governor Jesse Stone, followed by Mayor D. S. Ross on behalf of the city of Milwaukee. President J. W. P. Lombard of the Milwaukee Bankers' association welcomed the National association on behalf of the local bankers. President Alvah Trowbridge of New York read and then delivered his annual address. The remainder of the morning for the removal of the federal tax session was taken up with the re-

END OF SCHLEY INQUIRY IN SIGHT SEARS APPEARS FOR THE DEFENSE

Tells How Sampson's Flag Lieutenant Refused to Allow Him to Send a Message to the Navy Department From Admiral Schley.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Unless the cross examination of witnesses by the government occupies an unexpected long time the end of the Schley inquiry will soon be in sight. Ray, when he came to the defense, told this morning that the testimony he had intended to present would be the same as that presented by the government.

Pilot Nunee was again on the stand this morning. He testified he, the cable office with a message for Schley, thought the Spanish ships couldn't report the victory and there found Sampson's flag lieutenant, who refused to allow the sending of Schley's message. He testified that neither he nor the commodore had any knowledge of signals for the fleet when the fleet left Key West.

On July 2, Sears said, there was an unusual amount of smoke in Santiago harbor. It looked as if there was heavy firing or quantities of powder blowing up but he heard no report.

ROOSEVELT ANXIOUS OVER TRUSTS; THINKS THEM A SERIOUS PROBLEM

President is Taking the Views of People from All Sections of the Country on That Subject.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—Next because they are companies and not to reciprocity and the Nicaraguan canal the president discusses with all his callers the subject of trusts to such an extent which shows how important he considers the topic. Most of those called into conference in the White House consider the details of their talks as strictly confidential, but it appears to be quite evident from the various reports which filter out from time to time that the president has rather strong convictions on this subject.

He fully recognizes, his callers say, the gravity of the problem, and while he is full of the idea that something must be done, he like many other men is somewhat dubious as to how and when the remedy for trusts must be applied.

The president, it is said, is extremely anxious to do something to curb the power of the trusts so far as their operations tend to raise prices and crush competition. At the same time he does not desire to inaugurate a crusade against corporations merely sphere of action.

JAMES LONGEGAN GIVEN NEW TRIAL

Supreme Court Makes a New Ruling—The State Medical Law is Declared To Be Constitutional.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 15.—(Special)—James Longegan, serving a life sentence in the state prison for the murder of Policeman Prinslow at Fond du Lac, Nov. 18, 1898, was granted a new trial by the supreme court today on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to prove his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. This is the first time the court has reversed a murder conviction on that ground.

In the suit of J. R. Kellogg, of Portage, a graduate of the college of Physicians and Surgeons in Chicago against the state medical board to compel them to give him a registration without examination, the court decides that the state medical law which requires the examination is constitutional.

GRACE SNELL WILL BE MARRIED AGAIN

Back to the Old Love of Frank Coffin, Who Was Twice Her Husband.

Waukesha, Oct. 15.—Grace Snell Coffin Walker is to be married for the fourth time. The bridegroom is a former husband from whom she has been divorced twice—Frank N. Coffin of Chicago.

News of this unique matrimonial venture came to light yesterday in Waukesha when Albert J. Stone of Chicago, brother-in-law of the bride, to be appeared in court as attorney in fact for Mrs. Walker, to procure permission for his client to wed again.

Mrs. Walker's petition, which was granted by Judge James J. Dick, asked the permission to marry because a new law passed by the Wisconsin legislature last winter prohibits divorced persons from marrying for one year after divorce without consent from a court of record. The Walker appeal was the first made under the new statute in the circuit court of Waukesha.

FREE STATE AGENCY FOR EMPLOYMENT

During the Last Week 149 Positions Were Filled at Milwaukee and West Superior.

Madison, Oct. 15.—(Special)—During the last week 149 positions were filled through the agency of the free state employment bureau at Superior and Milwaukee; 187 applications for employment and 169 applications for help were filed, 38 applications for employment and twenty applications for help were unfilled.

For the fourteen weeks the bureau have been established the record is: Total applications for employment, 2,657. Applications filed, 2,178. Applications for employment unfilled, 479. Applications for help unfilled, 790.

THE FUNERAL OF LANSING WARREN

Remains of the Editor and Publisher of the Milwaukee Sentinel Laid to Rest.

Milwaukee, Oct. 15.—The body of Lansing Warren was taken to Lake Forest, Ill., for interment this morning at 11 o'clock, and was accompanied by a large delegation of friends, including a number of the Sentinel office force, a committee of the Press club, and others. The active pallbearers were the heads of departments from the Sentinel office as follows:

George H. Clements, managing editor; George J. Cline, business manager; James G. Garvey, superintendent of the composing room; E. D. Winclock, editorial writer; John J. Schmitzer, night editor; M. C. Douglas, city editor; Fred J. Carpenter, superintendent of the press room; and John L. Foley, circulation manager.

The honorary pallbearers were personal friends of the deceased in Milwaukee as follows:

John H. Vanduyke, W. F. Hooker, Judge C. E. Dyer, Willet M. Spooner, Gardner P. Stickney, Senator W. G. Bissell, L. W. Nieman and Thomas W. Spence.

There was no service at this morning, however, the employees of the Sentinel and a few intimate friends visited the house at 254 Pleasant street to view the body. The services will be at Lake Forest.

It will be some time before the owner of the Sentinel, Mr. Pfister, takes up the question of a successor to Mr. Warren. At this time none is mentioned. However, it is believed that a man of a high order of ability will be chosen from the experienced men in the profession.

CROWE DICTATES HIS OWN TERMS

His Bond to Hold Him for Trial Has Been Fixed at Only $500 by the Authorities.

Omaha, Oct. 15.—The rewards aggregating $50,000 offered by Edward Cudahy, Sr., and the City of Omaha no longer hang over the head of Pat Crowe.

The conditions laid down by Crowe as a necessary preliminary to his surrender have been fully complied with and nothing remains but for the fugitive to keep his word by making a public appearance in Omaha.

The second condition made by Crowe was that his bond be fixed at an amount not exceeding $500 pending the decision of his case. Chief Police Donahue and the county attorney are agreed upon the sum.

WHY CHOATE IS COMING HOME

London, Oct. 15.—The minister of one of the minor European powers vouches for the statement that the American Ambassador Choate's real object in going to America is to present a message of inquiry to Roosevelt regarding his attitude to England in case of European complications. It is added that Choate and the king had fully discussed the matter just prior to Choate's departure.

YALE IS READY TO CELEBRATE

Formal Observance of the Second Century of the Great College.

IT IS 200 YEARS OLD

Distinguished Visitors From the Old and the New World To Be There.

STORY OF THE SCHOOL

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 15.—Tomorrow Yale will be two hundred years old and distinguished men from the old and new world are gathering to assist in the bicentenary celebration, the most noteworthy of its kind, probably, in the history of the United States. The annual celebration begins on October 20 and will continue for three days.

President Roosevelt is to be here with Secretaries Hay and Root, Chief Justice Fuller, Justice Brewer, and many senators and public men. Among the men of letters included in the list of visitors are William Dean Howells, Edmund Clarence Steadman, Edward Everett Hale, Donald G. Mitchell (Ike Marvel), Thomas Nelson Page, George W. Cable, Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain), and others.

Visitors From Abroad

Notable among the visitors are representatives of the universities of England, Scotland, Russia, France, Germany, China, Japan, Canada, Australia, Chile, Sweden, Syria. Every notable university and college in the United States has sent an official representative—Harvard sending President Eliot; Princeton, President Paton; Columbia, Seth Low; Michigan, President Angell; Chicago, President Harper; John Hopkins, President Gilman; Cornell, President Schurman. Scores of educators of national prominence are included.

Yale's Part in History

The history of Yale is a story of alternate hope and despair, of theological disputes and theological rebellions, of financial depressions and rich endowments, and of every factor nearly that went to the making of the country through the two centuries of its existence.

When Yale was begun New England consisted of about 100,000 scattered inhabitants. The only institution of learning was Harvard, founded by graduates of English universities in 1636, and the infant college of William and Mary chartered in 1693. The idea of a collegiate institution for New Haven was one of the first ambitions of the settlers of this old colonial town. In 1697 after the long French wars were over, the New Haven people began again to discuss the project of a college, and the Rev. James Pierpont, the successor of John Davenport, himself a graduate of Harvard in 1681, took the lead.

The First Yale Student

Between 1697 and 1700 several meetings were held to arrange for drafting a charter. This was applied for in September and in October, 1701, it was granted under the name of "Collegiate School of Connecticut."

The organization of Yale, however, came a month later when the Rev. Pierpont was named as rector and Baybrook as the place of instruction. In March, 1702, the first Yale student appeared in the person of one Jacob Hemingway of New Haven, and in September, 1702, the first commencement was held, and one student graduated. This was Nathaniel Chauncey of Stratford, who had studied privately with his uncle, one of the board of trustees.

Given Name of Yale. Elihu Yale, who had already sent books to the college renewed his interest in 1718 and sent over a large consignment of volumes, East India goods, and a portrait of the king, which is still preserved, from which were realized in Boston, markets $262. So grateful were the trustees that at the 1718 commencement the college was formally titled "Yale College."

In 1719 began the long and splendid line of men who have occupied the chair of chief executive at Yale college and university. The Rev. Timothy Cutler, 1719-1722; the Rev. Elisha Williams, 1726-1739; the Rev. Thomas Clapp, 1740-1766; the Rev. Nathaniel Daggett, 1766-1777; the Rev. Ezra Stiles, 1778-1795; the Rev. Timothy Dwight, 1795-1817; the Rev. Noah Porter, 1817-1866; the Rev. Timothy Dwight, 1866-1899; and Arthur Twining Hadley, who entered office in 1900, form a line of chief executives whose careers cover the rise of Yale from a mere provincial academy to one of the leading universities of the country.

CZOLGOSZ SHOWS NO CHANGE

Assassin, According to Prison Wardens, Displays No Uneasiness. Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 15.—"Absolute" by nothing new with Czolgosz, Varden Mead's reply to a query today. The condemned assassin has not asked for any spiritual adviser. The death warrant has not been read to him yet, and he has not given the least intimation that he would like to commit suicide.

COUNCIL ACTS ON HURD'S FRANCHISE

Local Street Car Magnate Has the Council With Him—Meeting of Aldermen Last Night.

Mayor Richardson and a full board of aldermen were present at the council meeting last evening. Considerable time was lost getting to work on account of the minutes of the previous meeting having to be read, but when once fairly started the matters to come up were handled without gloves.

The city treasurer's report for the month of September was referred to the finance committee and later placed on file. The report of the municipal court for the same month went to the judiciary committee who reported it all right.

A petition from Martin Ryan and A. S. Wolcott stating that their property had been over assessed and asking for a reduction, was referred to the finance committee, who asked for more time which was granted.

The application of George J. Hurd for a franchise to construct, maintain and operate an electric railway in the city of Janesville was referred to the highway committee who reported favorably upon it and it was given its first and second readings. In order to get the matter out of the way Alderman Efield moved that the rules be suspended and the ordinance given its third reading. This motion carried and the ordinance was given its third reading and passed. The franchise is the same as the one granted to the Beloit, Delavan Lake and Janesville road and the one granted P. L. Spooner.

The city engineers report of a street grade for Prospect avenue and a side walk grade for South High street was accepted and placed on file.

The report of the street assessment committee on the proposed improvement of South Jackson street from Pleasant to Rock street, by Macadamizing and the benefits and damages accruing to the abutting property was read.

The report of the committee on the meeting held October 2nd was also read and a further petition of the property owners protesting against the proposed improvement. A report was made on the improvement of Court street by macadamizing from Harrison to Clarence street.

Before referring the Jackson street improvement to the highway committee Mayor Richardson asked if there was anyone present that wished to say for himself that he was unconditionally opposed to the whole proposed work.

He filed a written protest against the work stating that all but four of the property holders were opposed to the improvement. That all were opposed to Berea sandstone as a curbing and wanted Portland cement and all objected to having the street widened as a thirty-eight foot roadway would injure the shade trees. He also stated that the public at large would get more benefit out of the improvement of the street than the abutting property and that the work should be paid for out of the general fund as several streets in the Fourth ward had already been. The whole matter was referred to the highway committee who after discussing the situation for an hour reported in favor of deferring the consideration of the work until the first meeting in February.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin, Free and accepted Masons be invited to take charge of the laying of the corner stone in the new city hall to be laid Oct. 19th, 1901, and that the city clerk cause a copy of this resolution to be delivered to the proper officers thereof."

The ordinance providing for the issue of $6,500 of bonds to pay for the library site and the city hall building and site, was given its first and second readings and given its third reading and passed under a suspension of the rules. The usual batch of bills that come up at every meeting were reported on by the finance committee and ordered paid. Special assessment lists for the work on South Franklin street were ordered prepared by the clerk.

The clerk was instructed to draw an order for $1,000 in favor of Shearer and Peters for part payment of work done on the storm sewer on Washington street from Magnolia avenue to the Mole culvert.

Crosswalks were ordered in a number of places in the First and Third wards. Cement approaches were ordered put in on Court street where they are necessary. The gutters were ordered on Court street at the intersection of East, Harrison and Jackson streets. M. J. Haisler was granted permission to use a portion of Main and Court streets in moving the soldiers' monument.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The fact that Washington is the scene of Mr. Tim Murphy's new play for next season, "A Capitol Comedy," and that McNally's newest farce, "The Rogers Brothers in Washington," only emphasizes how infrequently our dramatists have gone to this mine for material. "The Senator," in which W. H. Crane made his greatest hit and Hoyt's "A Texas Steer," in which Mr. Murphy made his first hit cover the entire field of the successful Washington plays to date. Not only have the successes been few but few attempts have been made to use the capital as a dramatic locale. Some years ago Augustus Thomas tried it in "The Capitol," and a cheap melodrama "Under the Dome" met with a little better treatment from its own clientele. "A Capitol Comedy" is expected to display about the same balance of serious and humorous elements as plays like "The Senator" and "The Henrietta."

Sousa's famous comic opera "El Capitan," which has been received with high favor in the leading theatres of the country, was presented very capably at the Myers Grand last evening by Jules Graus's opera company.

The company is a well-balanced one and might in truth be said to be a trifle heavy for light opera. If the weight of the chorus girls were taken into consideration. Edward Eagleton, who carries the title role, is a clever comedian and a robust singer of more than ordinary powers to please. He is ably supported by Stanley Felch whose meek manner and velvety voice made his comedy work so unique that he audience regretted that he was not more conspicuous. The gentleman who won greatest favor as a vocalist was Harry Davies and his numbers were repeatedly encored.

The leading feminine parts were well cared for by Mamie Scott, Besie Tannerhill and Mary Carrington. Miss Carrington's difficult solo in the second act was considered one of the gems of the evening. The play was well staged.

Wife and Child Missing

Albert Foster, a resident of Beloit was in the city last evening in search of his wife and child who left him about a week ago. They came to this city at that time and Foster came up here to see if he could find any trace of them. He is particularly anxious to get possession of the child. He did not find any trace of the missing ones and returned to Beloit.

George W. Howe Dead

Word has been received by friends in this city of the death of George W. Howe, of Cleveland, O., at his home in that city Sunday afternoon. He was a close and intimate friend of H. D. McKinney. He was a well-known business man and army officer and the former secretary of the Cleveland National Baseball club. He had traveled extensively in foreign countries and had been decorated with the order of Franz Josef by the present emperor of Austria-Hungary.

A new remedy for biliousness is now on sale at the People's Drug store and King's pharmacy. It is called Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. It gives quick relief and will prevent the attack if given as soon as the first indications of the disease appear. Price, 25 cents per box. Samples free.

RALLY OF YOUNG PEOPLES' SOCIETIES

The rally of the Young Peoples' Societies of Christian Endeavor and Epworth Leagues, held at the Presbyterian church last evening under the auspices of the Christian Young Peoples' union was largely attended and proved a very profitable and enjoyable meeting.

The rally opened with singing and A. E. Matheson, state president of the Christian Endeavor societies, spoke briefly to announce that C. E. Eberman the field secretary of the Christian Endeavor society of Wisconsin is to go out through the state and work among the young people with the object in view of strengthening the society. Saturday evening, November 2, beginning at 7:30 o'clock and continuing for fifteen minutes, has been appointed as a season of prayer for his success and every Christian Endeavorer is requested to spend that time in earnest prayer. On Sunday evening, Nov. 3, a union meeting of the young people's societies will be held.

Rev. J. T. Henderson led the young people in prayer after which reports of what various societies are doing were given by their presidents. John Clark brought a word of good cheer and greeting from the Christian Endeavor society of the Rock Prairie Presbyterian church. Other reports were given by Miss Catherine Stoddard of the Baptist church, Miss Mabel Best of the Presbyterian church, Miss Harriet Rogers of Court Street M. E. church, Miss Ada Fenton of the Congregational church and H. E. Cary, who represented Miss Myrtle Pantall, of the First M. E. church, Miss Pantall being unable to be present.

Excellent addresses on Christian workers and the importance of the mission of young people were given by the Rev. S. G. Huey, pastor of the Rock Prairie Presbyterian church and by Rev. Richard M. Vaughan, pastor of the Baptist church. Neither gentleman spoke at length but both were direct and forceful in their encouragement of the young people and what they had to say was listened to with intense interest.

The musical part of last evening's program was exceptionally fine. It included a beautiful vocal solo, prettily rendered by Miss Edith Maltress, Prof. J. S. Taylor playing her accompaniment; a vocal duet by Misses Gladys Heddles and Mabel Rustad, whose sweet voices blended harmoniously in the melody for which Miss Evelyn Packer played the accompaniment, and some excellent and very enjoyable selections by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra.

If young ladies think roses, pinks and red noses look well with a bridal veil and orange blossoms, it's all right. Yet Rocky Mountain Tea would drive them away. 35c. Smith's Pharmacy.

King Leopold Is Coming.

Antwerp, Oct. 15.—King Leopold has decided to visit New York. He announced this at an interview granted to the burgomaster Saturday.

BURGLARS FIRE A BUILDING.

Dynamite Explosion Causes Loss of Bluffton Milling Plant.
Bluffton, Ohio, Oct. 15.—Burglars blew open the safe in the office of the Bluffton Milling company here with a large charge of dynamite. The building caught fire and the entire plant was destroyed, causing a loss of $25,000. It is said the burglars secured nothing, as the safe was empty. They fired two shots at Night Operator Greer, who attempted to turn in a fire alarm, and made their escape.

Botha Makes Escape.

New York, Oct. 14.—Heavy rains have temporarily interfered with communications between the columns in the field, says a Dundee, Natal, dispatch to the Times. As was feared, the Boer force, in trying to make good its escape, has melted into small groups. Commandant-General Botha and the main body of burghers, accompanied by three commandants, have reached Pongola forest, near Luneburg, Transvaal.

So great is the agitation aroused by the recent speech of Sir Redvers Buller that, according to the Tribune's London correspondent, Gen. Buller is being urged by his friends to publish without delay the full text of his telegram to Gen. White in reference to the surrender of Ladysmith.

Requisition for De Moleyns.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 15.—Gov. Yates has issued a requisition upon the governor of New York for the extradition of Cecil W. E. DeMoleyns, under arrest at Albany, N. Y. DeMoleyns is wanted in Chicago for obtaining $1,412 from F. H. Wheaton by representing to him that he was in the employ of the war department of Great Britain.

Roland Molineux Hoped.

New York, Oct. 15.—Gen. E. L. Molineux, father of R. B. Molineux, has just paid a visit to his son at Sing Sing prison. Gen. Molineux reports that R. B. Molineux, who is charged with the murder of Mrs. Katharine Adams, is in excellent physical condition and confident that the state Court of Appeals will grant him a new trial in the next few days.

Boys Who Force Their Toes

and heels and knees through stockings should wear Pony Stockings. Pony stockings are better than others at the price, and withstand the wear and tear that the liveliest boy can give them. The very best yarn goes into pony stockings, also the very best dye. The latter does not fade or run, so the stockings retain their lustre after having been washed. No other stockings can compare with Wayne Knit Pony Stockings for Boys and Girls; they cost 25c but.....

Wayne-Knit Pony Stockings have triple heels, triple knees, triple toes; none to equal them at 25c.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for Mrs. L. B. Garland, Shady, Tenn., it has done for others. She took it when she was all run down—with-out appetite, losing flesh, and unable to do her work. It restored her appetite, increased her weight, and made her well and strong. This is her own unselfish statement.

AN INTERNAL REMEDY.

A Pleasant Tasting Tablet; Simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form of Catarrh.

The use of inhalers, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and inconvenience at the best, and cannot compare with antiseptic remedies in tablet form.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can really reach the seat of the disease which is in the blood and local applications can no more cure catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble, the excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood and causes them to be eliminated through the natural channels.

Progressive physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of Gualacol, Hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even little children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents.

Very Low Rates to Buffalo and Return Via C. & N. W. R'y.

$8.75 via differential lines; $9.48 via standard lines. Tickets will be sold at above rates every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday; limit 5 days. Correspondingly low rates for 15 and 20-day limit exclusive. See ticket agent C. & N. W. passenger depot. Telephone 35.

Foreigners Are Protected.

London, Oct. 15.—"A large Afghan force has been assembled around Kabul and is maintaining order," says a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Simla. "Habib Ullah Khan has appointed a special guard for each European in Kabul, directing that the guards shall answer with their lives for the safety of their charges. The Indian government has postponed the usual move to Calcutta and Lord Curzon has definitely postponed his projected tour."

Fatal Trolley Car Accident.

Hamilton, Ohio, Oct. 15.—A Southern Ohio Interurban car jumped the track at Engel's corner, killing Motorman L. Childers of Trenton and severely injuring Conductor H. Parker. A heavy fog prevailed at the time and the motorman, mistaking his whereabouts, struck a curve at a high speed. The car jumped and struck a telegraph pole. There were no passengers aboard.

Fight for Rogers' Millions.

New York, Oct. 15.—The contest over the will of Jacob S. Rogers, who left his millions to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, will, it is said, be based upon the claim that an agreement was made between the testator and his brothers, Columbus, Jason, and Theodore, pledging themselves to dispose of their properties after death to members of their own families.

Hermit Killed for His Gold.

Davenport, Iowa, Oct. 15.—James Buchanan, an aged hermit, was murdered for his money near Charlton. His assailant used an ax, and after having committed the crime ransacked every nook and cranny of his victim's cabin. So far there is no clue to the identity of the murderer.

IDLE DISCUSSION.

This talk about a candidate for governor is largely hot air speculation. The state now has a governor elected by the republican party, and while he has steadily lost in popularity since the day of his inauguration, because of his erratic and unpopular measure, it is neither good policy nor good politics at the present time to select a candidate to succeed him. What the party needs above everything else is harmony, and harmony at the expense of some sacrifice if necessary, and while it is true that Governor La Follette shows no disposition to conciliate, it is also true that he has been an invalid for months with a single advisor who cares no more for party harmony than he did years ago when he was conducting democratic journals.

It is not at all likely that the governor, when he recovers, will change his tactics, because he is not that kind of man. If he does not it is extremely doubtful if he could or should be renominated.

If it becomes necessary to select some man to succeed him, there is ample time to find the man, and no dearth of good material. Senator Whitehead has a host of admirers throughout the state who would be pleased to honor him. Mr. Alexander, better known in the northern part of the state, has also a strong following, as has Mr. Froehlich. Other names will be discussed with equal enthusiasm, but whatever the outcome may be, it is not the mission of the republican league to encourage personal ambition or select candidates. This organization is free from factions and will continue to be. When the republican convention assembles next summer, however much rivalry may develop, if it is necessary to select a new man for governor, the final action will be harmonious and the best interests of Wisconsin republicanism will be the first and only consideration. In the meantime, while it is natural to discuss men, there is a limit that should be observed, in party interests.

IN MEMORY OF MCKINLEY.

Arrangements have been completed to raise a fund by popular subscription, for a monument to be erected at Canton, Ohio, in memory of the dead president. The management has very wisely decided to invite subscriptions of any amount, from the child's offering of a penny, to the checks representing wealth and abundance. It is well that this memorial association has been thus early organized, because however sacred may be the memory, the time to raise funds readily is when public thought is arrested and public sympathy aroused. The American people are impulsive and generous, but they are also a busy people, and the age is so rapid, and events so absorbing, that the past is frequently neglected.

The experience that New York witnessed in a vain effort for a Grant monument was not only disappointing, but humiliating. The Galveston flood elicited universal sympathy, and unlocked treasure in all parts of the land, but it would be difficult today to raise money for Galveston, however urgent might be the demand. The plan of the McKinley Memorial association is to interest organizations of every character, and have the money contributed forwarded to the treasurer, Col. Myron T. Herrick, of Cleveland, O.

The work should be done promptly and the offering should represent a free will offering, in the highest sense. If no concert of action is taken in Janesville, The Gazette will be pleased to receipt for any moneys, and see that it is forwarded to the treasurer of the association.

DEATH OF LANSING WARREN.

Lansing Warren, manager of the Milwaukee Sentinel, since February last, died at his home in Milwaukee yesterday morning after a brief illness. Mr. Warren is not generally known to the people of Wisconsin, outside of the newspaper fraternity. He was a successful publisher, both in Denver and Chicago, and when he left the latter city to assume the management of the Sentinel, there was no question about results. The same untiring energy and intelligent work rapidly placed the Sentinel in the front rank of American newspapers. He was in the prime of life, possessing not only vigor and strong determination, but a genial disposition that won the hearts of all who knew him. He was a victim of overwork, and when attacked with typhoid fever, his system was in no condition to fight the disease, and while his strong will resisted, aided by the best care that skill and loving hands could furnish, an enfeebled body was unequal to the strain, and death resulted.

The publishers throughout the state appreciate the man and his work, and genuine sorrow will find ready expression. The Sentinel will miss his strong and vigorous management while it will profit by the few months of intelligent service rendered.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

President Adams of the state university has been obliged to sever his connection with that institution on account of failing health. He has been the presiding officer during the past nine years, and the impress of his work will be felt for many years to come. He was a faithful, energetic servant, and it is cause for regret that he is unable to continue. He will spend the winter in Southern California, where both he and his wife hope to be benefited. They will carry with them the best wishes of many friends throughout the state. In selecting his successor the board should take time to find a man who is thoroughly competent for the important position. If the university has a weakness, it is along the line of misdirected ambition. The object of the university is the higher education of the Wisconsin youth. It was not intended to compete with eastern colleges, and while the state has always evidenced a spirit of liberality in caring for the school, the question of exceeding its mission has frequently been discussed.

The people of Wisconsin desire to place within the reach of every child and youth in the state, the opportunities for an education, but they are not ambitious to furnish money freely for all comers from other states. The graduates of the university represent a small fraction of one per cent. of the school population. The money contributed for this limited class is much in excess of the average spent on the average boy and girl. The spending of this liberal allowance should not be lightly considered, and it is a question as to whether the doors of this institution should be thrown open to other states.

Ninety-five per cent. of the boys and girls of the state enter active life and assume the responsibilities of citizenship from the grades in the public schools. That they succeed in the various callings selected is evident to any mind, that has given the matter any thought or observation. Of the five per cent. left who graduate from the high schools, only a fraction ever see the inside of the university, and a diploma from the university is not always a passport to success.

The board of regents will grasp the situation from the people's standpoint when they sacrifice all pride for college competition, and appreciate fully the fact that the institution represents but one feature of state education, and is not entitled to special favoritism.

Give the presidency to a Wisconsin man like L. D. Harvey, and it is safe to say that it will be kept within reasonable bounds.

Ex-State Treasurer of South Dakota, W. W. Taylor, was a defaulter, but his trial developed that he was a victim of misplaced confidence and after serving a short sentence he was released, and since that time every energy has been bent to making money to reimburse the state and his creditors. Mr. Taylor enjoys the confidence of his friends who are doing all they can to assist him.

Rev. Henry Paville is one of the incorporators of the new Presbyterian college at La Crosse. The Eaton farm near the city, has been donated for a site, and $100,000 will be raised to endow the institution. Mr. Paville will be remembered as a former Janesville pastor.

The same old cry of free trade is just now absorbing the democratic press. The party these papers represent, is so welded to its idols, that not content to share in the general prosperity thrust upon it, an effort will be made to abolish the protective tariff, and return to the hard experiences of democratic free trade. The effort will be futile.

There's a time for everything, and a best time for a good many things. This is the best time that the country has ever experienced to saw wood and be happy.

Conceit is not a sin, the man or woman who possesses it in violent form, never has time to do anything very wicked. They swell up, while their friends do the swearing.

A man never knows how angular he is until he bumps up against the rough and tumble of life and then he thinks it is the other fellow that owns all the corners.

There are plenty of women who gossip about their neighbors, but they are as hard to locate as the age of a maiden past thirty.

It's easier to make money than it is to save it. If you don't believe it, save ten cents a day for a year, and you will find how easy it is to buy a shot gun with the accumulations.

If contentment is a jewel, there are a good many people going around without ornaments, who ought to lay in a stock.

If life is what we make it, there are a good many wrecks that indicate neglect.

The man who smokes has no right to complain of his wife's extravagance on a grocery bill.

PRESS COMMENT.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Barring the facts that Colonel Nicholas Smith was not a member of the Iron Brigade, has not been secretary of the brigade association, and is not dead, the Appleton Crescent's obituary may be permitted to stand.

Milwaukee Journal: That little hazing game pulled off at the West Virginia university where a young woman was compelled to walk barefoot through a bed of mortar was undoubtedly very entertaining to the hazers. Now, however, that the skin is all peeling off the feet and legs of the victim, the girls whose brilliant minds conceived the idea are probably taking turns in putting their heads in one another's bosoms and having a good cry.

Rice Lake Leader: The Stalwart papers in the state are giving Nils P. Haugen altogether too much prominence for a man of his ability and political influence. The least said about him the better, for he would have amounted to nothing had he not been lifted from political obscurity by the act of the governor in making him a member of the state tax commission. Let it be remembered that there are other Scandinavians in the state far more brilliant and far more deserving.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: Much interest will center in the report of Labor Commissioner Powderly who will discuss to some extent the policies by which anarchy may be checked. Mr. Powderly is quoted as saying that it is not the illiterate who is the most dangerous immigrant.

Algoma Press: Beyond the question of a doubt, the shelving of Mr. Kuesterman by the administration means that Marietta county will present the name of William A. Ellis of Peshtigo, and that he will be the most active factor in the field from this time on.

Fond du Lac Reporter: Governor La Follette should not get discouraged over the present notoriety Henry C. Payne is receiving because of his interviews with President Roosevelt. The governor has his Jere Murthy and the Milwaukee Free Press to coddle up to.

PHILOSOPHY OF THE STREET.

Great calamities do not crush people nearly as seriously as continual petty annoyances.

Fully two-thirds of the human family seem to exist for the purpose of imitating the rest.

Every human being has a desire to own something that can be bossed, even if it is only a dog.

The span from the cradle to the grave is probably merely a link in the endless chain of man's destiny.

Fortunately no man appreciates how much of a nuisance he may become to his associates, and all the while have the best of intentions.—Milwaukee Journal.

MILD DECEPTION.

Bowling Green, Ohio, girl, 125-pound airy fairy damsel; glibly young avian; usual result; he wooed and she would; engagement; years drifted by—eight of them in fact; no marriage although her love, was at the same voltage and a higher temperature for there was more of her—much more; she was growing like a green watermelon on a hot day; 119 pounds; his affections waned as she waxed; breach of promise; suit for $5,000. Now if that Bowling Green young man is anything of a lawyer he can put up a very pretty and dashing defense; admit the contract and set forth his willingness to carry it out with the original 125 pounds he became engaged to call for a segregation from the odd 194 to which he owes no obligation whatever.—J. C. Wilmarth in El Paso Herald.

WOOD WORKERS IN NEW LABOR UNION

Officers Elected and Installed at a Meeting in Assembly Hall—Bakers Also Form Union.

At a meeting held last night at Assembly hall a large gathering of wood-workers perfected an organization of their craft. General Organizer Hansen of the American Federation of Labor and the Amalgamated Wood-Workers International union of Minneapolis, Minn., and District Organizer R. D. Hogan of the Independent and Mr. Osborne, president of the local carpenters' union, were the principal speakers of the evening.

After the remarks of the speakers the list was opened and when closed thirty-five members had signed the roll. The following officers were elected and installed by the general organizer:

President—J. A. Hoffman.
Vice President—A. Hanson.
Recording Secretary—E. J. Courts.
Financial Secretary—W. L. White.
Treasurer—J. Radtke.
Conductor—Bert Lemmon.
Warden—F. W. Galbier.
Past President—G. A. Howland.
Trustees—18 months, H. F. Baldwin; 12 months, Herman Miller; 6 months, Archie Griawold.

Another meeting will be held Sunday morning at Assembly hall at ten o'clock.

Bakers Had a Good Start

The journeymen bakers have also come to the conclusion that they are in need of organization and at a meeting held last Sunday they formed a temporary organization. R. D. Hogan delivered an eloquent address on the advantages to be gained by organization and at the conclusion of his remarks every baker in the hall signed the charter list of membership. H. D. White was elected secretary and undoubtedly his efforts in the line of securing more names to the list will be a success.

Another meeting will be held on Saturday evening at the same place when a permanent organization will be effected and officers elected and installed.

General Organizer Hansen, who has been in the city for several days past in the interests of labor unions, leaves tonight for his home in Minneapolis. He has completed his work here and is well satisfied with his success and with the outlook for the unions which he has been instrumental in organizing.

A LIFE SAVER.

The public is always loud in its praise of the brave acts of the life savers, who rescue victims from the fury of the waves. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound saves thousands every year from the awful consequences of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the world of praise from grateful people voiced in letters received by every mail, shows the wide spread appreciation of the medicine that makes healthy stomachs. It wards off sickness, children like everybody likes it. Pleasant to take. Pleasant to everybody. Four druggists sell it in 50c. and $1.00 bottles (paper in bulk). If you will write us and mention your symptoms we will be glad to send you a trial bottle and a very interesting little booklet on stomach troubles, free. Pepsin Syrup Compound. Medicinal Use.

The first number of the Y. M. C. A. course opens two weeks from tonight, with the Parker Concert company.

MAMMOTH RALLY OF THE GIDEONS

Meeting in Janesville on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 19 and 20.

WITH A CAMP-FIRE

A Very Fine and Elaborate Program Has Been Prepared for Occasion.

BRIGHT MEN TO COME

A mammoth rally of the Gideons, the organization of Christian traveling salesmen, is to be held in this city next Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 19th and 20th. It is the second annual meeting of the local Camp, No. 2 of Janesville, Wis., Gideons of America, but the program which has been arranged by the program committee of which John H. Nicholson is chairman, is one worthy of a national convention. Speeches of prominent and leading Gideon workers from other states who will be present, it having been possible to secure them from the fact that meetings of both the national executive committee and the state executive committee are to be held in this city on Saturday afternoon.

The rally will open on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock with a camp-fire at the Presbyterian church. On Sunday there will be four services besides which speakers from the ranks of the Gideons will conduct the morning services at the Congregational, Baptist and Presbyterian churches. A consecration meeting will be held at 9 o'clock at the First M. E. church, the Gideons will take charge of the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building at 3 o'clock, and also of the union young people's meeting which will be held in the Baptist church at 5:30 o'clock. At 7 o'clock there will be a union service at the Congregational church.

The national officers are: S. E. Hill of Beloit, president; R. L. Adams of Madison, vice president; John H. Nicholson, Janesville, secretary; W. J. Knights, Janesville, treasurer; L. C. Smith, Oshkosh, chaplain; S. J. Lea, Elgin, W. H. Teetzel, Chicago, E. C. Beede, Monmouth, Ill., counselors; Charles H. Palmer, Chicago, W. S. Bowen, Chicago, and F. C. Harder, Plainfield, N. J., national superintendents. The state officers are: A. D. Lewis, Baraboo, president; J. E. Grunkow, Milwaukee, vice president; J. M. Critton, Madison, secretary and treasurer; Rev. E. B. Edmunds, Beaver Dam, chaplain; and the members of the executive committee. Most of these gentlemen will be present at this rally.

Particularly Bright Stars—Among the particularly bright stars who have been secured for the program are Frank A. Garlick of Chicago, who is state superintendent of the work in Michigan and a brilliant speaker; C. S. Riddle of Chicago, president of the Illinois state work; A. D. Lewis of Baraboo, state president and one of the best speakers on the program, and C. H. Palmer of Chicago who is a national superintendent and never fails to take an audience by storm with his eloquence. The singing will also be ably conducted, E. R. Colby of Chicago, being an inspiring leader; and Fred Woodcock of Chicago being an unusually fine musician. His songs, with guitar accompaniment, played by himself, are said to be valuable additions to any program.

Has Had Rapid Growth—Probably no organization has ever had a more rapid growth. The order was born in this city July 1, 1899; only three men being present at the first meeting. They were J. H. Nicholson and W. J. Knights of this city, and S. E. Hill of Beloit. But they were in earnest and they outlined an organization which they modestly thought might be helpful to a few men in this vicinity and who might meet together occasionally in fellowship. The second meeting was held in Waukesha two months later with seven men present and a reported membership of forty-seven. But from that time the growth has been remarkable, and from a small beginning made in this city a mighty organization has arisen which is constantly extending in influence and membership. There are five organized local camps in Iowa, four in Wisconsin; Madison, Janesville, Eau Claire and Milwaukee, two in Illinois and one each in Minnesota and Indiana. Besides this, however, the organization has individual members in nearly every state in the union, from Maine to California and even in Mexico and Canada, and these individual members are spreading the work so rapidly that a large number of new camps are expected to be organized in the near future. Some idea of the marvelous growth in membership may be gained from the fact that twenty-five applications for membership were received by J. H. Nicholson, the national secretary, yesterday, and this is no unusual record for a day. The Gideons are only a little over two years old but today there are 1753 of them, the majority of whom have heard of the movement in some indirect way, written for information and applied for membership.

All the sessions of the coming rally are public meetings and the Gideons will be glad to welcome the people of Janesville to any of the services. The chairman of the various committees having the rally in charge are W. J. Knights, reception; John H. Nicholson, program; W. F. Mayhew, entertainment and W. E. Clinton ushering. The complete program for the rally is as follows:

TO GO OVER NIAGARA FALLS.

Michigan Woman Promises to Attempt Hazardous Feat.

Bay City, Mich., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Anna E. Taylor, teacher of dancing and physical culture, who plans to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel some day this week, has left for the falls and before going repeated her determination to make the attempt. Her manager, F. M. Russell, with the barrel, is already at the scene of the undertaking. The barrel was made under Mrs. Taylor's supervision. The inside will be padded and she will have straps to hold to. One end will be weighted and a valve will be placed in the other end to admit air. This will be closed when Mrs. Taylor thinks she is approaching the falls, the start being made more than a mile above. It is estimated she will be able to live an hour in the barrel after the valve is closed, and she expects to be pulled out long before that time.

Says Italians are Discharged.

New York, Oct. 15.—11 Nolmento, an Italian paper published in Paterson, N. J., makes the statement that scores of Italians have been discharged from the silk mills in that city since the assassination of the president because of their nationality.

The newspaper strongly protests and declares that there was nothing in common between the Italians and McKinley's slayer.

YOUNG DESPERADO AGAIN IN LIMBO

HOW CHIEF JOHN HOGAN CAPTURED RAY MARSDEN.

Plunder Found on the Person and in the Room of the Tricky Boy Who Recently Escaped from the Reform School at Waukesha—He Will Be Sent Back.

Ray Marsden is once more behind the bars of the Janesville City lock-up and Chief Hogan once more feels easy. Ever since Marsden escaped from the reform school at Waukesha he has been ducking in and out of Janesville, but the police have not been able to get hold of him. He would come in in the night and get out of town before morning or go off into the woods and hide in the brush during the day time.

Sunday night Chief Hogan got a tip that Marsden would be in the city some time that night and started on a still hunt after him. Close watch was kept on the railroad trains and an officer kept a watchful eye on Miss Kimball's home on South Jackson street, but nothing was seen of the much wanted youth. Chief Hogan was satisfied that Marsden was still around the city and last night watch was kept on the Kimball home until about 1:30 o'clock but without success.

This morning shortly after eight o'clock the chief went down to Miss Kimball's and went into the house. Miss Kimball told Hogan that Ray was not around the house but was around the yard somewhere and would be in, soon.

She was so badly frightened by threats the boy had made that she did not dare say anything about him, knowing his disposition and that he would carry out his threats.

While Miss Kimball and Hogan were in the house talking, the kitchen door in the rear opened and in came Marsden. Before he could make a move or really know Hogan was after him the chief jumped him and soon had him where he could do no harm.

The first thing the chief did was to search him. He found two 38-calibre Harrington & Richardson revolvers, one in a leather holster attached to a belt hanging on his right hip, and the other in his left-hand pocket. Both guns were loaded and ready for use. Besides the revolvers he had a wicked looking dirk knife and a billy. These the chief relieved him of and hustled him down to the lock-up.

Ever since Skelly's book store was robbed on Friday night Chief Hogan has been satisfied that Marsden did the job. In looking around he found the boy had been here that night and the next day and had offered fountain pens to boys or two people and also had some other things kept by book stores in the city.

After he landed Marsden in the lock-up, Chief Hogan went back to Miss Kimball's and in the room occupied by the boy found enough stuff to satisfy him that the boy had been mixed up in other robberies besides that of Skelly's. He secured three boxes of knit golf gloves. One box contained one dozen pairs of ladies' gloves and the other two each a dozen pairs of men's gloves. There was also an odd pair of knit gloves and six pairs of woolen socks.

This stuff Chief Hogan thinks was taken from box cars. He also found a red combination pocket and memorandum book with a leather cover, a bunch of lead pencils, a package of large sized rubber bands and a couple of fountain pens. The memorandum book has Skelly's coat mark in it and was among the stuff taken Friday night. The rubber bands, pencils and pens were also from Skelly's. He had the key to Skelly's cash register and a two foot rule which he said belonged to O'Brien. The bulk of the fountain pens taken from Skelly's, evidently have been pawned in Chicago, but the boy is as mum as an oyster and will tell nothing, but the chief expects to find out where he pawned the pens.

Ray Marsden is not a small boy as many people suppose, but a well-developed young man. He is about five feet, eleven inches tall and will weigh close to 140 pounds. He is not only a first-class crook but a desperate character. The authorities at Waukesha have been notified and will send after him at once. The state board will no doubt have him transferred from Waukesha to the state reformatory at Green Bay, Wis., where he will be safe.

Marsden weakened this afternoon and told Chief Hogan that the fountain pen he stole of Skelly Friday night were pawned in Chicago and that he would go with an officer and get them.

There are eighty also sent in the bunch.

NEWS OF A PERSONAL NATURE

Miss Julia Warren of Waukesha spent the day in the city.
Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Conant leave today for La Crosse, where they will be the guests of relatives for three weeks.
George Baumgarter, George Gilman and L. W. Kendall were today appointed commissioners by Judge Dunwiddie, to appraise the damage done to property in Beloit on account of telephone poles being set in front of it by the Wisconsin Telephone Company.

WINTER GARMENTS.

Continually getting in new creations in garments for winter wear keeps our stock in excellent shape to satisfy the demands of almost every woman who is interested in a new cloak. We aim to have a large variety and have bought our garments with the greatest care, being sure that styles were all right before going ahead. Everything here in winter garments; lengths and colors to one's liking.

Tenth Wedding Anniversary.

The tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Berg, was happily celebrated last evening, about forty of their friends participating in the pleasure of the occasion. The celebration was a complete surprise to Mr. Berg and when he arrived home he was greeted by an unearthy din made by the guests pounding on tinware and blowing horns. The abundance of tinware was later bestowed on the host and hostess and after greetings were over the evening was spent in card playing and dancing. Johnny Smith's orchestra furnished delightful music, an elegant supper was served, followed by good cigars, and at a late hour the guests departed with many good wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Berg's future happiness.

Six superb entertainments for $1 are on the Y. M. C. A. course.

FUNERAL OF LATE GEORGE W. TYLER

Lodge Members Sorrowfully Follow the Remains to the Grave—Rev. Mr. Henderson Officiates.

Funeral services for the late George W. Tyler were held from his home, 4 Yuba St., this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the large attendance speaking eloquently of the high esteem in which the deceased man was held. Rev. J. T. Henderson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services and Mrs. A. O. Wilson sang appropriate selections beautifully. Olive Branch Lodge No. 36 A. O. U. W. and Laurel Lodge No. 2 Degree of Honor were present as organizations and conducted the beautiful burial service of the order at the grave in Oak Hill Cemetery. The A. O. U. W. emblem, an anchor and shield and the D. of H. emblem, a heart, were conspicuous among the many beautiful floral offerings. The pall bearers were chosen from Olive Branch lodge and have all served as master workmen. They were Charles J. J. Schottle, Carl Pabst, Herman Buchholz, E. J. Kent, William Marsden and John Heller.

CLINTON.

Clinton, Oct. 14.—On Thursday last Mrs. E. B. Budlong and Mrs. E. Elbridge gave a very delightful "at home" to one hundred and forty of their lady friends, the older ladies being invited from two to four while the younger married ladies, with a few of the misses, were entertained from four to six.

The rooms were adorned with plants and flowers, while the dining room where the dainty refreshments were elaborately served, was darkened, and the soft, mellow light of the numerous candles cast a subdued tone on the festoons of amilax, clusters of ferns and carnations. Upon entering this room each guest received a beautiful carnation as a souvenir of the happy occasion.

In the parlors Mrs. Inman furnished some piano music and the sweet strains of the music box charmed the fair ones in the dining room while partaking of the dainties. Those from Janesville in attendance were Mrs. A. J. Harris and Mrs. Lohdell.

There was no service in the Methodist church last Sunday.

Kodol

Digests
what you
Eat

Dyspepsia Cure

Many digestive compounds and tablets are recommended to cure dyspepsia by digesting food with the pepsin they contain. Most of these possess merit, but they all fail in many cases, because pepsin digests only albuminous foods, such as eggs and meat. But we must eat more than eggs and meat; and some of the worst cases of dyspepsia are caused by indigestion of fats and starches and other foods which pepsin cannot digest.

There is one preparation that contains all the digestants. It is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE, which digests what you eat, and has been used with remarkable success,—not a single failure to cure being reported from the many thousands who have used it.

J. E. Peabody, Pittsfield, N. Y., says: "The first dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure relieved my son of stomach and heart trouble, and four bottles of it cured him. I heartily recommend it."

FERRIS & BURGESS,

MOST IS SENT TO PRISON

Anarchist Editor Punished for Incendiary Articles.

ONE YEAR IN SING SING.

After a Trial in the Court of Special Sessions—New York City—He Is Duly Convicted of Having Applauded Assassination.

New York, Oct. 15.—John Most, the anarchist, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary in the court of special sessions.

His offense was publishing in his paper, the Freiheit, an alleged seditious article on the day following the shooting of the late President McKinley.

In sentencing Most the Justices of the Court of Special Sessions delivered a denunciation of anarchy and its principles. They expressed the hope that the laws of the nation will be so amended that men of the stamp of Most will not be allowed to live in the United States.

Judge sees No Doubt of Guilt. Mr. Hilquist, Most's lawyer, made a motion for a certificate of reasonable doubt. "Why," said Justice Hinsdale, "we have no doubt. One of the justices is in favor of fining your client $500 in addition to his jail sentence. The motion is denied."

Mr. Hilquist then moved for a new trial and an arrest of judgment. Both motions were denied and Most was taken to the Tombs. Justice Hinsdale brought out a new point of law when he quoted a section of the penal code under which the prisoner was found guilty. Here it is:

"A person who willfully or wrongfully commits any act which seriously injures the person or property of another, or which seriously disturbs or endangers the public peace or health, or which outrages public decency, for which no other punishment is expressly prescribed by this code, is guilty of a misdemeanor." Commenting on this section Justice Hinsdale said: "The plain and obvious intent of this was to leave in the code a little of the flexibility of the common law to meet cases which they had failed to specify in the preceding sections."

HIGH PERCENTAGE IN NEW BUILDINGS

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 15.—Statistics of building operations in the nineteen cities are published in the Construction News today. In all the larger municipalities the record for the first nine months of 1901 easily surpasses those of a similar period during the past decade. During September 4,848 permits, involving an expenditure of $15,914,453, were taken out, as against 4,439 buildings that cost $12,675,887 for the same period last year—an increase of 355 structures and $3,238,566 in their cost, or a general increase of 26 per cent.

In point of total amount New York leads with $3,576,625, and Chicago is second, while Brooklyn, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia are close up. As regards highest percentage, Milwaukee is the premier, with 295 per cent. increase over September of 1900.

Bank Robbery in Ohio. Sheely, O., Oct. 15.—The Farmers' & Citizens' bank was demolished this morning by safe blowers who got away with a large sum of money. Citizens attracted to the scene of the explosion were driven back by a shower of bullets.

It Happened in a Drug Store

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist at Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid." In course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy," the remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by The Peoples' Drug Co. and Smith's Pharmacy.

Gus Smith, employed on the farm of Fred Hampt in the town of La-Prairie was thrown from a wagon onto a barb wire fence and badly injured on Thursday.

Yates Was a Visitor.

Evanston, Ill., Oct. 15.—Governor and Mrs. Yates visited the Rock River conference and the enthusiasm of the preachers was aroused while the governor addressed them. When he had finished and reference had been made to his father, the war governor, Bishop McCabe led the singing of the rousing "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and many eyes were moist during the singing.

Bibles as Watch-Charms.

Miniature bibles are worn as watch-charms in Russia. They are each one inch long, three-fourths of an inch wide and three-eighths of an inch thick, and contain the first five books of the Old Testament. The text is in Hebrew, and can be read with the aid of a magnifying glass.
